The Lakes Distillery Gin, Lake District

40%

4.50

Made using a traditional copper batch still deep in the undergrowth near Keswick.

Monkey 47 Gin, Germany

47%

6.50

An unusual gin from the Black Forest in Germany, Monkey 47 contains a unique ingredient. No, not that. Cranberries. The 47 comes from the number of botanicals that go into this unique gin, and the fact it's bottled at a healthy 47%.

Rock Rose Gin, Scotland

43%

5.30

This very northerly gin features an alluring botanical selection including locally harvested Rhodiola Rosea, Rowan Berries, Sea Buckthorn, Blueberries, Verbena, Coriander Seed, Cardamom and Juniper from two different countries, Italy and Bulgaria. They use a traditional copper pot still, which of course has a name (it's Elizabeth).

Hendricks Gin, Scotland

43%

5.00

A simple yet fresh gin that uses mainly cucumber as a primary botanical, along with the usual juniper.

Tanqueray 10, Scotland

47.3%

6.45

The gin of James Bond and Ian Fleming. This idiosyncratic gin uses the top botanicals and produces a spicy, full flavoured gin that really rocks and rolls. Heavy on the coriander, cumin and angelica - utterly delicious.

Botanist Gin

46%

6.50

An exciting and unusual gin from Islay whisky distillery Bruichladdich. The Botanist gin is made in a Lomond still christened Ugly Betty and contains no fewer than 31 botanicals, of which 22 are native to the Southern Hebridean island itself. Unsurprisingly floral!

Bombay Sapphire Gin, London

40%

4.50

Well - it may appear as if this old favourite has been around for years, but it was only introduced to the UK market in the late 1990's - it is now the standard pouring gin for a lot of places and its easy to see why. Soft, elegant with good juniper bite

Gordons Gin, London

38%

4.50

The world best selling London gin. A distinctively refreshing gin, crafted from the finest hand picked juniper berries and a secret selection of botanicals.

FLAVOURED GIN

25ml

Edinburgh Rhubarb & Ginger Gin, Edinburgh

40% 5.00

A unique recipe of 14 botanicals and signature Edinburgh Gin post-infused with rhubarb and ginger to create a perfectly balanced juniper-forward gin full of natural flavour. Aromas of rhubarb are complemented by a lift of spice, leading to a smooth, full finish. This aromatic gin is equally at home over ice, topped up with chilled Prosecco, or mixed with ginger ale and a lime twist.

Carlisle Raspberry and Passionfruit Gin, Cumbria

37.5% 5.00

Tangy passion fruit sits alongside juniper, aromatic floral notes and citrus peels, supported by vanilla, jammy raspberry and a hint of tartness.

The Lakes Distillery Pink Grapefruit Gin, Lake District

37.5% 5.00

Vibrant notes of juniper and coriander combine with the naturally sweet, uplifting citrus flavour of pink grapefruit.

The Lakes Distillery Elderflower Gin, Lake District

25% 5.00

With abundant notes of elegant elderflower, this is a delicately fragrant and uplifting liqueur. Refreshingly floral and vibrant, intricate flavour infusion creates a characterful gin liqueur with a lively, fresh finish. Perfect straight over ice or with a mixer for a flavourful cooler.

Laphroaig 10 Year, Islay, Scotland

40%

7.25

The favourite of most submariners and yacht-people. This is a smoky, brine and seaweed infused whisky, spicity and powerful with an unyielding heat and iodine coated character. Close your eyes and you could be stood on a wind raked shore on a stormy night, smelling iodine and spume from the waves and hearing the roar of mother nature bellowing her power in your ears.

Talisker 10 Year, Skye, Scotland

43%

7.25

Situated on the shores of the sea loch on Skye's green and softer edges south side, neath the towering Cuillin Mountains, this distillery has suffered much in the past 200 years, from being burned to the ground more than once, a murder scene and mayhem from smugglers and neer'do wells from time to time. This flagship distilelry makes a whisky best described as spicy, peaty lava, such is its intense iodine and smoky character, warming the cockles and burning its way into your heart forever.

Glenlivet Founders Rerserve 15 Year, Speyside, Scotland

40%

7.50

Gorgeous, soft and smooth spey malt, showing why this is the world's top selling malt whisky. Genteel in many ways, and judged perfect for those starting their malt 'career'. Try it with a drop of water and a good book. This distillery is famed for being the first licensed distillery in the UK.

Nikka from the Barrel, Japan

55%

8.50

This is a multi award winning malt whisky from one of the best distilleries in the World - if you have ever wondered what it is to make a whisky that could arguably beat the Scots then try this its like a turbo charged Macallan 18 year old with more spirit absolutely spell-binding.

Tamdhu 12 YO, Speyside, Scotland	43%	7.00
Described as a Mini-Macallan by some, this is one of the Speys most elegant, sweetish and softly lingering whisky's, made from 100% sherry oak cask ageing and nuanced with notes of caramel, ginger, light peat and cereal- outstanding!

Glenfarclas 10 Year Speyside, Scotland	40%	7.00
The 10 year old Glenfarclas is a classic highland dram. Soft and smooth with fudge, vanilla and dried fruit flavours. An excellent introduction to the world of Glenfarclas.

Ardbeg 10YO, Islay, Scotland	43%	7.00
This is one of the smokiest, peat-reek fiery and memorable whisky's on our list – a whiff of wild brine, burning grass, sherry and iodine counterbalance in an assault on the beaches of your senses. This is witchcraft and Storm Force 10 in a glass!

Glenfarclas 105 Strength, Speyside	56%	8.50
The Glenfarclas 105 is a cask strength bottling brimming with flavour. Freshly roasted coffee beans with some bitter dark chocolate marry over toasty oak and creamy vanilla. The mouthfeel is viscous and satisfying with more dried fruits and buttered brioche flavours developing. A terrific warming spice and lengthy finish.
